Lyrics	1 I know of a jewel whose lustre Is purer and brighter than gold-- A jewel that sparkles forever, Adorning the young and the old; A jewel more precious than rubies, Or pearls from the depth of the sea-- A jewel, dear children, worth keeping, A treasure for you and for me. Chorus: A jewel, dear children, worth keeping, A treasure for you and for me; A jewel, dear children worth keeping, A treasure for you and for me. 2 That jewel, the love that redeems us! O seek it by watching and pray'r; I know the dear Saviour is willing To give you that jewel so fair; And O, in the crown of the faithful, Its glory transcendent shall be-- A jewel, dear children, worth keeping, A treasure for you and for me.
