

Songs

Song title	Soon Be There
Year Composed	1868
Author	Fanny J. Crosby
Alias (if any)
Composer	Alexander Van Alstyne
Songbook	Chapel Melodies
Songbook page	52
Time sig.	6/8
Music key	D
Stanzas	3
Times Published	1
Source URL	https://hymnary.org/text/awake_away_the_morning_dawns
Lyrics	1. Awake, awake the morning dawns, Behold the opening day; Arise and hast with courage bold, To run the heavenly way; For weary souls a rest remains, The end of toils, the end of pains. We soon shall break the earthly chains Thro' grace we'll soon be there. Chorus: We'll work and wait till Jesus comes, We'll work and wait till Jesus comes, We'll work and wait till Jesus comes, And then be gathered home. 2. Rejoice in hope, O trembling soul, Lift up thy tearful eys, And in the strength of Christ, the Lord, Press onward to the prize. A crown of gold, a robe of white, A victor palm of glory bright, Are waiting in that world of light, Thro' grace we'll soon be there. 3. O may the fruits of joy and peace Within our souls abound, And in the vineyard of the Lord His children still be found; Then safely on the other shore, Our trials pass our journey o'er, We'll sing with dear ones gone before Praise God! We're home at last.
Editor Notes	Composed by Fanny's husband.